

SUDs Fourth Learning Session

For more than a year now, three Substance Use Disorder Facilitating Centers or Centers of Excellence have been developing and delivering best practice information in their regions and statewide. The populations selected for research and best practices are medically assisted treatment, people who have been incarcerated, people without homes, rural (poverty), seniors, and young adults in transition. Please see below for links to their websites where you will find their products, training announcements and contact information

Bay Area First Step (BAFS)

<https://www.bayareafirststep.org/contact-us/>

Bay Area First Step, Inc., is comprised of and led by people in recovery, provides alcohol & drug-free housing, and peer-delivered services designed to support individuals and families through the various stages of their recovery

1942 Sheridan Ave.
North Bend, OR 97459
(541) 756-3111
(541) 756-2111 – Fax

EMAIL- General Inquiries: info@bayareafirststep.org
Steve Sanden: ssanden@bayareafirststep.org

Story of Recovery with BAFS support

BAFS helps people without homes find homes

MetroPlus Association of Addiction Peer Professionals MAAPPS

<http://www.maapp.org/posteducation>

MAAPPS is an addiction peer association in the Portland Metro Area (tri counties)

2054 N Vancouver Ave
Portland OR 97227
(503) 231-8164

The Addiction Counselor Certification Board of Oregon—ACCBO

<http://accbo.com/>

The Addiction Counselor Certification Board of Oregon (ACCBO) was founded in 1977, with the mission of certifying addiction professionals through competency based evaluation of education, experience and exams.

Addiction Counselor Certification Board of Oregon 2054 N. Vancouver Avenue Portland, Oregon 97227

Email: accbo@accbo.com

Eric Martin eric@accbo.com

Oregon Peer Network

<https://oregonpeernetwork.net>

Oregon Peer Network (OPN) is an online community designed to enhance Peer Delivered Services (PDS) through technical assistance, training, news, and online forums focused on Mental Health & Substance Use Disorder's (SUD) & Recovery.

Project ABLE

<https://projectable.org/>

Project ABLE supports those struggling with mental health and co-occurring issues along the road to recovery.

Through one-on-one peer support and wellness classes, thousands of individuals receive support that embraces human dignity, recognizes the capacity for individuals to recover, and promotes life-long empowerment.

Project ABLE Video

Salem Administrative Offices and Training Center

1599 State Street Salem, OR 97301

(503) 363-3260

(503) 585-0491

McMinnville

117 NE 5th Street, Suite C McMinnville, OR 97128

(503) 474-5509

Mae Salas msalas@projectable.org

Barb McDowell bmcdowell@projectable.org